Meeting Site: Michel Building Rm 115 & 116

Time	Title	Presenter	Description
8:00 a.m.	Is Collective Data Action the Dream?	Ace Charette	Given TCU participation in Achieving the Dream (ATD) over the past few years, the time is ripe to determine the future of collective decisions for this initiative. After contributing to multiple national data projects (CCSSE, SENSE, etc.), the TCU network has seen research that contextualizes the uniqueness of the TCU student experience. This session will explore the impacts of the data gathered from each institution and make reasonable determinations about future interest and need in ATD-related activity. Session topics include covering a student success report for AI/AN students, reviewing broad data points of interest, and discussing experiences related to ATD activity. By the end of the session, attendees may provide recommendations about future steps needed for continued institutional and network growth.
